THE FORT WAYNE BIBLE INSTITUTE - FORT W

Oliver E. Steiner

Because . . .

As a man, your life has been challenging and inspiring;

As a professor, your instruction has been beneficial and delightful;

As a friend, your companionship has been warm and true . . .

We fondly dedicate the Light Tower of 1948, to you, Professor Oliver E. Steiner.

CHRIST PREEMINENT

. . . In whom we have forgiveness of sin; who is before all, and in whom do all consist. For He is the head of the church, the firstborn from the dead, and in Him all fulness dwells; pleasing the Father, that in all, HE MIGHT HAVE THE PREEMINENCE.

And, for us, who were sometimes alienated by wicked work, has He made peace through the Blood of His Cross, that He may present us holy, unblameable, and unproveable in God's sight. Therefore, have we received Christ Jesus the Lord to walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him, to stablish ourselves in the faith as we have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

Let us then continue, grounded and settled in the faith and hope of the Gospel whereof we are made ministers to fulfill the Word of God.

—Colossians

The Light Tower of 1948 is presented to you with the prayer that this "Christ Preeminent" in your life shall make you a "minister of His Preeminence."

MOTHER RAMSEYER

A day rarely passes that we do not have the pleasure of seeing her. Her sweet presence graces our morning chapel periods and oftentimes we are fortunate enough to have her as our guest in the dining room. Her life itself is a vibrant testimony. She always has a cheery word for those whom she chances to meet. Her memory is keen and many a tale of days gone by will she relate to you. You surely know whom we mean—why, Mother Ramseyer, of course. To be sure, if you want to be very formal and correct you will call her Mrs. J. E. Ramseyer, wife of our late President who was also one of the founders of our Fort Wayne Bible Institute.

For over forty years, ever since B. I. first came into existence, Mother Ramseyer has had a major part in contributing to the spiritual welfare of the students. They have found never-failing inspiration in her ability to lose herself in His precious Word; in her unending store of experiences from which she brings help and hope to all who seek her aid; and in her continual interest in all the students, their problems, their ambitions, and above all, their spiritual happiness.

Mother Ramseyer, we love you. May God continue to bless you abundantly.

MRS. B. P. LUGIBIHL

From the first day of school, back in 1904, up to the time of her homegoing on September 4, 1947, Mrs. B. P. Lugibihl was vitally interested in the life and work of our Bible Institute. For over thirty-five years she was directly connected with B. I., having been in charge of the kitchen and dining room, and later serving as Matron. She retired from active work in 1937, but the B. I. campus was blessed with her presence as she continued to live here until 1945 and then moved just next door.

Because of her sweet ways and her close walk with her Lord, Mrs. Lugibihl won her way into the hearts of the students. Called "Mother" Lugibihl by all who knew her, she gave guidance to those who worked and talked with her.

We miss "Mother" Lugibihl here on the campus but praise the Lord that we'll see her over in Glory.

Fast as the rolling seasons bring
The hour of fate to those we love,
Each pearl that leaves the broken string
Is set in Friendship's crown above.
As narrower grows the earthly chain,
The circle widens in the sky;
These are our treasures that remain
But those are stars that beam on high.
—Holmes

FAREWELL

"Till the Day Breaks . . ."

Deep sorrow has come to our school. On March 20, 1948, Morris Jackson, following an illness of two weeks, went to be with the Lord. We who bear the keenness of the loss can only bow our heads and say, "Thy will be done."

Morris was born on August 23, 1925, in Sturgis, Michigan. His death occurred during his fifth semester in Bible School and called him from his pastorate at the Shiloh Christian Union Church. Morris possessed outstanding musical talent, which he used widely in the Master's service. His disposition was ever sunny and cheerful, and he once asserted that it was his constant purpose to bring happiness into other's lives. Yet there was within him a depth of character that made him consistent and prompt in every responsibility. The crowning virtue of his life was the beautiful devotion with which he served Christ before his associates, culminating in the tremendous challenge to complete consecration that his death imparts to us who remain.

Good night, dear heart, your departure leaves an ache in our breasts and tears in our eyes; but we shall see you in the morning and bask once again in the sunshine of your personality. Until then we turn patiently to our unfinished tasks better men because we knew you.

SAFARA A. WITMER, A.B., M.A.

His total surrender and absolute devotion to Christ manifest to everyone that Christ is "all, and in all" to him. The students who are in his classes eagerly absorb the profound truths as he reveals them from God's Word; many are enriched in their spiritual experiences through his teaching.

President Witmer does not shun work, nor does he expect his students to do so; "dig it out for yourself" is one of his mottoes.

PRESIDENT

His friendly smile sheds forth the love of Christ which dwells in his heart. His love and concern for the welfare of the instructors, the workers and the students is shown in his sympathy and assistance in time of trial. He gives evidence of a personal interest in each individual student both in secular and in spiritual matters.

His God-given chapel messages are uplifting, refreshing and sometimes reproofing. The fervor with which he delivers his messages manifests his sincerity. President Witmer's life is cherished and admired by all who know him.

JARED F. GERIG, Th. B., A.B., M.A.

Dean Gerig's godly life is an incentive to many a young person to press onward for Christ. His sincerity in living the Christian life reminds us of the seriousness of life. He follows the admonition as given by Paul in 1 Timothy 2:1, 2: "I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty."

DEAN

He has a calm composure of spirit amidst his multiple duties. He willingly assists and advises those who acknowledge a need. His love for the students is also seen in that at times his desk becomes a pulpit from which he energetically delivers an urgent message to his students.

His winning smile and his sense of humor add to his character. Dean Gerig's life is a blessing and valuable asset to our Alma Mater.

Appreciation

Words cannot express our gratitude to you who have given of your time, effort, understanding, and substance, so desperately needed in the production of this Light Tower. To you who have responded, and cheerfully; who have cooperated, and heartily; who have assisted, and wisely; we express our appreciation. And to our Advisor, H. L. Mitchell, a special, "You're swell."

THE
MISSIONARY HOUR
W O W O

The First Missionary Church wishes to remind the Bible Institute students of yesteryears and of today, that we hold in high esteem the friendship and fellowship we have enjoyed as we worshipped together in God's sanctuary. When in the city for a Sunday be sure to visit us and thus give us the opportunity of renewing our friendship.

. . . and then comes the night

The Sunshine of this "day" of grace casts a shadow across the sun-dial of this dispensation. The time ? It's much later than many people realize. It must soon be night time . . . when man can work no more.

There is so much work to do, yet so little time in which to do it!

We wish to remind each of you — both student body and faculty members — that our earnest prayers and best wishes accompany you as preparations are made for the spiritual harvest ahead.
